

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF NEBRASKA

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,
Plaintiff,

vs.

OLIVIA V. WILLIAMS,
Defendant.

8:25CV35

MEMORANDUM AND ORDER

This matter is before the Court sua sponte. The government brings action against the defendant Olivia Williams (“Defendant”), individually and doing business as Risque Erotic, LLC and Williams Financial Solutions, following the distribution and forgiveness of funds under the Paycheck Protection Program (“PPP”) and the Economic Injury Disaster Loan (“EIDL”) equaling $30,770.00, plus interest and processing fees. Filing No. 1 at 1. Both programs were created in 2020 to assist businesses impacted by the Coronavirus pandemic. Filing No. 1 at 2 and 4. The government now seeks to collect from Defendant $209,185.70 in treble damages and civil penalties. Filing No. 1 at 1. In her Notice of Opposition, Defendant states, “I can’t even afford my bills and lawyer now.” Filing No. 24 at 1. The Court is uncertain whether this is a request for counsel.

Accordingly, the Court is unable to move forward with determining if Defendant should be appointed counsel. If Defendant is asking this Court to consider such a request, she must (1) file a motion requesting counsel, and (2) provide the Court with a financial affidavit. The Clerk of Court will provide Defendant with a financial affidavit to be completed for this purpose. If Defendant is interested in court appointed counsel, (1) the financial affidavit must be filled out and (2) a motion to appoint counsel returned to the Clerk of the Court:

Roman L. Hruska Federal Courthouse
